PROTESTS

OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS

If any member of the Men’s Section has any concerns regarding the execution of these Rules and Regulations (except the Playing Rules), these concerns should be brought, in writing, to the attention of the Men’s Executive. The Executive will address these concerns and make a decision. This decision shall be final and binding on all parties.

OF THE PLAYING RULES

- 1. Such protests will be heard by the Men’s Rules Committee.
- 2. Under no circumstances can an umpire’s judgment call in a game be protested.
- 3. All protests of the playing rules will be lodged by the manager of a team.
- 4. The protest must be announced to the umpires of the game and to the opposing manager at the time of the alleged infraction. The Umpires will instruct the Official Scorer to record the exact game situation at the moment of the protest,
- 5. The protest must be made by the protesting manager, in writing, stating the rule in question and describing the problem, to the President of the Men’s Section as soon as possible after the protested game.
- 6. The President will inform the Men’s Rules Committee Chairman, who will call a meeting of the Committee and invite those people who he deems to have pertinent information regarding the situation that will help them in their deliberations. Protests will be heard as soon as possible, at a time and date set by the Committee Chairman.
- 7. The protest may be withdrawn at any time prior to the meeting. Otherwise, the Committee Chairman will make a recommendation to the Men’s Executive for a final decision.
- 8. The President or his designate will notify the parties concerned of the final decision and make every effort to correct the problem to the satisfaction of the injured/offended party or parties.

9. Any member of the Rules Committee who has a conflict of interest must declare so. The Committee Chairman may ask him to recuse himself.

AWARDS

1. All League awards are to be the responsibility of the Citrus Park 50+ Softball League.
2. The Men's Section are free to create their own awards but must have the costs approved by the Board.
3. The Men's Executive must approve all Men's Section Awards.
4. Individuals and teams must not create 'League" awards on their own but individual teams are free to create their own "team" awards such as team MVP etc. and must bear the costs.
5. The Kenny Click Award: this award is presented to the player in the Men's Section selected for demonstrating sportsmanship and skill and will be chosen by the umpires and presented at the annual banquet.
6. The Leo Zupin Award: this award is presented to the player in the men's section showing the most improvement during the season and will be chosen by the Men's Managers and presented at the annual banquet.
7. The service award: to recognize the extraordinary volunteerism of a person or persons who volunteer with the men's section. The committee takes suggestions from men's league members and makes a final decision on the recipient(s). The awards committee announces recipient(s) and presents the award(s) at the annual banquet.
8. Inspirational award: may be presented to a player who is playing through a serious medical condition or simply a player who inspires through longevity and his ability to play at or above his rating. The committee takes suggestions from men's league members and makes a final decision on the recipient. The awards committee announces the recipient and presents the award at the annual banquet.

AMENDMENTS

Any part in these Rules and Regulations may be amended at any time before and in preparation for a new season by a simple majority of the members of the Executive who are present and voting. Organizational amendments may become effective at such time the Executive deems most appropriate for the operation of the Men's League. However, there should be no changes to the Playing Rules to become effective during the course of the season.

Any member of the Men's League may submit to the President in writing a proposed amendment to the Rules and Regulations, at any time. However, any submissions regarding Playing Rules must be made before November 30. The President will ask the Men's Executive to consider the proposal and make a decision. The President may also refer the proposed amendment to the Rules Committee and request a recommendation.

It is hoped that the Men's League will function with few problems. However, problems and their solutions are healthy for the growth of the organization. These Rules and Regulations should make problem solving easy and organized. Should any complication occur for which a solution cannot be reached by following These Rules and Regulations, the Executive is empowered to make a decision.
